Lorraine and I are looking forward to seeing everybody here in San Antonio from October 10th to 14th. We'll be staying at the El Tropicano Hotel on the Riverwalk, <http://www.eltropicanohotel.com/>. Mary Buonaguidi arranged a fantastic rate of $125 per night; look for an e-mail with a link to the reservation web site with the 82 rate. It is, as you can tell by the name, right on the Riverwalk. The Pearl Brewery shopping area is just a few minutes away, as well as all the downtown attractions. The tentative schedule follows:

Wed, 10 October	Check in
Thurs, 11 October	Free time - we'll have many suggestions in the welcome packet, Alamo tours, riverboat cruises, shopping, etc.
Fri, 12 October	Visit 558th Flying Training Squadron, the remotely piloted aircraft training squadron, and attend their student winging ceremony, tour the squadron and fly the simulators. Please be sure to complete the base access request. We must have everybody's birthday and driver's license number to gain access to Randolph AFB. Reception at the hotel that evening.
Sat, 13 October	Fredericksburg, Texas, to see the Museum of the Pacific and their live re-enactment of an amphibious landing. Banquet that evening.
Sun, 14 October	check-out and departure

We are in the process of arranging a possible guest speaker who should be outstanding and very exciting, but it's not confirmed yet, so I'll keep it a surprise for the moment. We may also have a few other surprises...

October is just around the corner! The planning continues and we look forward to seeing everybody!
